

Sunday, 23rd June

2013

Sunny

Dear Diary,

I'm six today! Dad took me to the toy shop to buy a present. I love doing jigsaw puzzles, so I picked a dinosaur jigsaw puzzle. I used to do jigsaw puzzles with Mum three times a week when I was only three.

After we got home, I started to do the jigsaw puzzle but I couldn't put any pieces together! I was bored, so I drew a picture of a sad dinosaur and put it inside the box. 😞

Dad looked at the box and said, 'It's a model kit, not a jigsaw puzzle! You'll know how to do it when you're ten.' So I put the box in the bottom drawer of my desk and went cycling with Dad.

1 Ryan's dad wants to do something special with Ryan. Read what he says.

Yesterday was Ryan's birthday, but I had to work. I'm free today, so I want to do something special with him. What should we do? We both like outdoor sports, but we also like to play games indoors. We haven't been to the cinema for a long time ...

2 Read the information on page 32 and in part 1, and list the activities Ryan and his dad both like doing. You can use your own ideas.

(Suggested answers)

Activities they both like:

Ans) ① go ice skating

Ans) ② go cycling

Ans) ③ do jigsaw puzzles

Ans) ④ watch films

Ans) ⑤ go bowling

Ans) ⑥ go hiking