

Vocabulary

Describing experiences

adjectives

1 	2
meaningful	joyful
3 	4
painful	awful / terrible
5 	Most words ending with -ful or -able / -ible are adjectives.
enjoyable

adjectives + prepositions

	proud of ashamed of pleased with angry with worried about upset about scared of
disappointed with
excited about

Can you think of some more adjectives to describe experiences? ➔

My word bank
p.68

Language focus

Meeting my baby brother Falling over

was	a joyful an awful	experience.
-----	----------------------	-------------

subject of the sentence

Use a singular verb

I was	(so)	proud of	myself. ←
		disappointed with	him / the result.
		upset about	the news.

Use reflexive pronouns (e.g. myself, yourself) when the subject and the object are the same.

Phonics

-ful, -able joyful

enjoyable

Listen and say the sentence.

Tell me about your most joyful, enjoyable, unforgettable or meaningful experience!

